The Usual Way.

The stars were shining; the ride down the river was perfect; it seemed as though no one could possibly want to argue or wrangle; but the woman in this case kept at it with a perseverance worthy of a noble aim.

"I'm watching you," said she. "You needn't think you can do just as you like, an' me not know it. I seen you talkin' to her, so you needn't deny it."

"Who's trying to deny it?" snapped the man. "I never said I didn't speak to her. I ain't got nothing, agin the girl. Why wouldn't I speak to her?"

"You promised me you wouldn't," sneveled his companion. "She's no good; an' if she don't take care she'll get herself into trouble. She'd better keep away from married men."

"You make me sick, Kate!" exclaimed the man. What kind of dog do you think I am that I can't be trusted to pass the time of day with a girl just because I'm married? Why, I shouldn't think you'd a took up with such a miserable character as you make me out."

"It's all very well," was the reply, "to try an' turn it off. You can't get out of it that way. You stood by Morgan's stoop more than half an hour last Saturday night, talkin' an' talkin' to Lizzie Dunn, fur I seen you."

"Gawd!" said the man, suddenly lifting his arms up toward the calm heavens, as though he expected them to fall. "Ain't you the terror? What ud you say if I took and turned around an' spied on you? Yer seen me do this an' yer seen me do that. With all your seein', what did yer see? Nothin' at all! Do you suppose if anything wrong was going on between me an' Lizzie Dunn that I'd come right next door to my own place to talk to her? You got me chained down pretty good, but I ain't quite a fool."

"What was you sayin' to her, Jim?" asked his wife, coaxingly. "Nothin' that you need bother about," said Jim; "just nothin' at all."

The woman began to sob softly. The man shuffled uneasily on his camp chair.

"Oh, let up," said he, "people'll be noticin' you."

Her husband caught her by the arm and held her in the seat.

"You are going to devil me till I tell you, an' it you! Well, Lizzie Dunn was married to my cousin, 'Bill' Tracy, Easter Monday, unbeknownst to any one, an' now she wants to tell my Uncle James and Aunt Ellen. 'Bill' sent her down to ask me to go up with them next Sunday. He thought it ud look good to have some one along that know Lizzie, an' I said I'd go. She'd have come to you only she knew you were down on her. I gave my word I wouldn't tell till after Sunday."

"I ain't down on her," faltered Mrs. Jim, "only I thought she was after you. If I'd known just what it was I wouldn't have asked you, Jim, but I'm satisfied now." And she drew closer to him.

Jim jerked away.

"Yes," he muttered, "you've made a sneak out of me, an' now you're satisfied. I'd a' rather lost a week's work than to have broken me word. But what do you care about that?"

And he lounged heavily aft to the water cooler, while she followed him with fond and foolish eyes.

Farm Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, to every subscriber who will pay one year in advance for THE HERALD. No better farm paper than the Farm Journal. This offer is only made to a limited number—the first who come forward.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

Blind Man Studying Law.

Robert G. Dayton, of Bridgeport, Conn., who is in the entering class at the Yale Law School, is the first blind student ever registered at the university.

Dayton is about 20 years old, and lost his sight in an accident three years ago while in the Bridgeport high school. He refused to give up his studies. His school-mates read his lessons to him, and he passed his examination by memorizing what he heard.

Dayton's plucky determination to become a member of the bar has won the admiration of New Haven lawyers, who will do all they can to aid him.—New York Journal.

Mrs. S. A. Lefebvre

and, of course, want a democratic newspaper. THE CHICAGO DISPATCH is the Great Democratic Weekly Newspaper of the country. It advocates the re-adoption of the platform and the renomination of William Jennings Bryan.

There has never been a political campaign that will equal in importance that of the one to be fought next year. The republican party, backed by the money power of this country and Europe, is alert and aggressive. Flushed with the victory of three years ago it will seek by every means in its power to maintain its supremacy.

Democrats must be up and doing. They must wage an unceasing war upon their enemies. In no better and more effective way can this be done than by the circulation of good, sound democratic newspapers. The publisher of The Chicago Dispatch, will send to every new subscriber for three months a copy of The Chicago Dispatch for ten cents. If you are not already taking this great political weekly, send in ten cents at once. You should not only do this yourself, but you should induce all your friends to join with you. By a little effort you can easily raise a club of ten or twenty subscribers.

The Chicago Dispatch is endorsed by William Jennings Bryan and other democratic leaders.

Address THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, 120 and 122 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

"This year's corn crop will be one of the largest in our history," said Secretary of Agriculture Jas. Wilson, who was in Chicago with the presidential party, Sunday. "The total yield, it is estimated, will be between 2,300,000,000 and 2,500,000,000 of bushels."

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

The world's births amount to 86,792,000 every year, 100,800 every day, 4,200 every hour, 70 every minute, and one and a fraction every second.

Don't forget that you can have the Courier-Journal or Dispatch and THE HERALD one year for only $1.25 cash in advance, and besides we will send you the Farm Journal until the end of the year 1899.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

Struck a Bargain.

Bootblack—Have a shine, mister? Only two cents.

Rusticus (who had been warned about being done by them city chaps)—No, sirc, I'll give you a penny.

B. B.—Can't do it, sir; two cents's the lowest.

R. (looking wistfully at his ex-black boots)—What d'yer say to a cent and a chew of this tobacco?

It was a bargain.

Weak Eyes Are Made Strong.

dim vision made clear, styes removed and granulated lids or sore eyes of any kind speedily and effectually cured by the use of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It's put up in tubes, and sold on a guarantee by all good druggists.

Harlan Sexton, who killed Jas. Cummings and Mrs. Trumbo, at a G. A. R. reunion, in Bath county, two years ago, was acquitted at Owingsville last week.

The Eagle, King of All Birds, is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold by all dealers at 25¢.

The Ohio Republican State Committee has sent letters to all the Government clerks in Washington soliciting contributions to the Republican campaign fund in Ohio.

Coughed 25 Years.

I suffered for 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Roswell, Grantsburg, Ill.

If interested in horses, cows or sheep, take the Farm Journal. We will give this paper for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, to all subscribers, new or old, who pay for THE HERALD a year ahead. This offer is for a short time only.

Lung Irritation

is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. 25¢. at all good druggists.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by J. T. Day, Druggist.

Every discriminating person will say that The Biggle Books advertised in this issue of THE HERALD contain a greater amount of condensed, common sense, well arranged information than any books they have seen relating to these important branches of farm industry. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

C. C. Gillaspie requests us to thank the people of Consolation neighborhood for the many kindnesses extended his nephew, Kelly Gillaspie, during the illness which culminated in his death last Sunday, and begs us to assure them that he appreciates their favors to the utmost degree.

WHILE there were many things at the Louisville convention that we did not admire, and Senator Goebel was not our choice for governor, we have been ready in our humble way to give him our support. Mr. Redwine, the chairman of that convention, and the editor of this paper, as is well known, have not been on the best terms personally for a year or so, but his attitude in that convention and his firm steadfastness for Senator Goebel has entirely redeemed him in our estimation, for above all things we admire the man who is true to his friends under any and all circumstances; and that Mr. Redwine did. And another thing which inclines us strongly to Senator Goebel is the fact that he is being hounded on all sides by men whose friendship he should have. In vulgar vernacular he seems to be "the under dog in the fight," and all the fies are snapping at him. He is being badly treated by those who should treat him the best, and our sympathy goes out to him as it does to all people under like circumstances. Now, John G. Carlisle and State Senator Beason are pouring hot shot into him, and we turn to his aid in a spirit of fairness. These latter gentlemen demand that he shall withdraw from the race, but it is not likely that he will listen for a moment to such lunacy.

SUBJECT OF NEWS.

If a man spends his youth in being a rake, he cannot expect to hoe his row in after life.

An Ohio farmer's hen has hatched out a four legged chicken. If the "double breasted" variety were more common, we could get along with fewer legs.

When President Lincoln wrote that "no man is good enough to govern another without his consent," he did not anticipate that only 35 years later the Republican party would try to prove that he didn't know what he was talking about.

Governor Roosevelt's attempt to appropriate for himself some of the honor intended for Admiral Dewey should cause him to return to Albany with a very poor opinion of himself, if such a thing be possible without a surgical operation.

By stating that he does not deem it advisable to bring the insurrection in Luzon to an end too soon, Gen. Otis merely expresses in words the theory on which the Spanish generals used to act. And the contractors heartily endorse the sentiments expressed.

After ex-President Harrison got through talking, it did not take the Venezuelan Commission long to unanimously decide against his contention; and in favor of much of what England had claimed. This was not the proper way to treat a lawyer who is capable of contracting a $250,000 fee for his services.

If the barbarous Mahomedan Sultan of Sulu is capable of governing his subjects with no interference from us, are not the Christian inhabitants of Luzon at least as capable? Yet President McKinley makes a treaty and pays an annual subsidy to the barbarian, but offers bullets to the others.

If Admiral Dewey had accompanied President McKinley to Chicago, the latter might have been eclipsed, instead of gaining luster by Dewey's reflected popularity. As in the case of Miles Standish and his friend who went a-wooing for him, the people might have cried, "Why don't you speak for yourself, George."

Admiral Dewey is not likely to be bamboozled by the politicians. If he has any political aspirations he is keeping them to himself. If finally determines to go into politics he will go in as he went into the harbor of Manila. He will just slip in when his opponents are not expecting him, and take possession before breakfast.

Somehow, Senator Hanna's declaration that the English government "is just as good as ours" seems to many Republicans as rather a foolish utterance to be made just at this time by one so close to the President. Mr. Hanna may think that the idea that a republic is better than a monarchy is very absurd, but there are still quite a few Americans who will not agree with him.

Whether or not the policy of crushing the Filipinos by force be approved, almost everybody but President McKinley seems to be thoroughly tired of Gen. Otis. But if the trifling military services of Teddy Roosevelt were sufficient to make him Governor of New York, there might be danger that a successful commander in the Philippines would interfere with Mr. McKinley's renomination.

NEXT Tuesday, Hon. William Jennings Bryan, the ablest Democrat since the days of Thomas Jefferson, and the most eloquent political orator of this generation, will speak to the people of Montgomery and adjoining counties in Mt. Sterling at 2:15 o'clock p. m. Saxton's famous band has been engaged and the greatest Democratic rally in the history of Montgomery county is promised.

GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY

A FARM JOURNAL

From now to Dec. 1903, Nearly 5 Years. By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published. This offer should be accepted without delay.

Pickett Motley and M. B. Nickell left Tuesday morning for Lorraine, Ohio.

R. D. Motley is this week moving to his new home near Spencer, Montgomery county.

Jimie Elkins, of Lacy creek, has our thanks for several very fine sweet potatoes.

Miss Eliza Henry, of near Ezel, bought a hat from Mrs. S. B. Kash's emporium.

The tobacco stripping has begun, and the crop has cured up better than for years.

S. S. Pinney, with White & Day, of Winchester, was here this week in the interest of his house.

Willie Swango on Tuesday bought of Judge Carson 18 head of cattle which will average 1,000 pounds.

Miss Ida Higgins and Frank McElroy are the guests of John Higgins, of color, the former being his cousin.

Mrs. Arbury Swango, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is reported by the physician to be much better.

Another supply of fashionable hats are on the road to Mrs. S. B. Kash's. Come one, come all and inspect the beauties.

D. S. Godsey, of Hazel Green, who has been in Arkansas for three weeks, returned to this city Sunday.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Mrs. Alice Pieratt left Tuesday morning for a visit to St. Helens to mingle with friends and relatives. She will be gone perhaps a week or two.

Misses Mary Stacy, Dora and Dollie Lykens, of Pin Hook, and Mrs. Nannie May, of Daysboro, were in town on Tuesday and bought a fine hat from Mrs. S. B. Kash.

James R. Cockerham, mine host of the Combs House, Campton, passed through here Tuesday en route to Lee City with Dr. Neville, the dentist, who will be at that place for two weeks.

The election for trustee in this school district on Saturday, resulted in the election of W. T. Swango over John H. Rose. The contest was quite warm but everything was in good order.

John M. Rose bought 21 head of 2 year old cattle at Nathan Day's sale, 17 from Wiley Perkins, 7 from Jeff M. Rose, 32 from Alex Rose, 2 from Dave Wells, 3 from John Barker, 6 from Green Stamp and 13 from Silas Rose, and will have them at Mt. Sterling court.

H. F. Pieratt having read of the rabbit ranches recently established throughout the country, and the fabulous wealth made in such ventures, last Monday bought 12 or 15 squirrels from Mrs. Lou Day together with the wire house in which she kept them, and will use them as a nucleus around which to build up a new industry. There is a great demand for squirrels in this section, especially among the Swango Spring boarders, and Henry proposes to supply all demands after a time. Of course there are a great many squirrels to be found in the head of the hollows around and about, but they are not at all times available and Henry thinks he will have overcome that difficulty by having them ready for the market. Hereafter invalids visiting the springs will only have to leave an order with Mr. Pieratt to secure all the squirrels they desire and the demand will be filled. Raising squirrels to order is something new in this neck of the woods, and the enterprise is one that will be watched with interest. Success to you, Henry.

Kelly Hays Gillaspie, who had been sick for about 12 months, died at the home of his uncle, C. C. Gillaspie, at 1 o'clock on Sunday morning last, aged 21 years, and was buried on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The malady which carried him off was consumption, and during the 12 months preceding death he suffered the most excruciating pain. He was a model young man in many particulars, and numbered his friends by his acquaintance. Indeed none knew him but to love him.

In our notice of the marriage of John Higgins last week the bride's name was given as Mayberry, whereas it should have read Miss Julia Bush, the court having granted her maiden name when she was divorced from her husband, Charley Mayberry. The occasion was a happy event in the society circles of the colored elite, and right royally did John entertain his guests. He set a nice supper, after which a dance was indulged in until the wee sma' hours, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

Weed Hall was shot by Marion Toliver on Saturday last, and death may ensue from the wound, which is in the abdomen. There are conflicting stories as to the cause of the difficulty. Hall was resting easy on Thursday morning, but Dr. Taulbee, his attending physician, thinks the chances against his recovery.

W. O. Mize, wife and son, Carl, of Hazel Green, came on Thursday to visit the family of J. G. Trimble. They remained until Monday. After attending the Jubilee Christian Convention at Cincinnati they will go to Illinois on a visit.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Rev. Geo. Froh, the new preacher of Grassy Lick and Mt. Zion churches, began a series of meetings at Grassy Lick on the 9th inst., and will continue about three weeks. He has just closed a very successful meeting at Mt. Zion church with twenty-eight additions.

At the school election held at White Oak, in Morgan county, on Saturday, a man named Reid shot and killed a man named Burton and wounded two or three others. No particulars are obtainable at this writing.

Great Cures proved by thousands of testimonials show that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses power to purify, vitalize and enrich the blood.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to be taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

An order has been issued by the Assistant Postmaster General requiring the weighing of every piece of mail. This began October 1, and will continue about thirty days.

Dr. Silas Kash reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Will Hager, near Daysboro, on Thursday night last, on the same night to the wife of B. Hilton, of Grassy, a boy.

THINK about your health. Do not allow scrofula taints to develop in your blood. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now and keep yourself WELL.

Prof. Cord left Monday for Cincinnati where he will attend a meeting of the C. W. B. M.

Written for THE HERALD.

"WHO'LL GET THERE, ELI?"

Three candidates are in the field, And each is trying to win The governorship of our dear state With his political chin. The orators are scattered o'er Our land from east to west, Proclaiming to the multitude That their man is the best.

Now two of them are working hard Against each other's views, Yet both are claiming Democracy, And in your mind infuse Each emblem bright the party owns From Jefferson's days of yore, The banner that he raised on high, True Democrats adore.

The other is a Republican, His banner high he floats, As he goes stamping o'er the land To get his share of votes. I know not, care not, who may win, In this political fight, But I do know there'll be a hot time In Kentucky on election night. Hazel Green, Ky. SAM WILSON.

CONNAUGHT 2D 3512.

This celebrated English Hackney stallion imported to the United States on June 3, 1893, will make the season of 1899 at the stables of John H. Pieratt, at Hazel Green, Ky., at the extremely low price, blood and beauty considered, of $6 TO INSURE A LIVING COLT.

Or $5 To Insure A Mare In Foal, money due when the fact is ascertained in either case. A lein on the colt will be retained for the season money, and in event the mare is traded off or bred to another horse the money will then be due. Every care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible should they occur.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

CONNAUGHT 2ND, 3512 is a beautiful bay, full 16 hands high, black mane and tail, good style and action and a fine roaster; 9 years old this spring. He was sired by Victor of Beetley 1587; dam, Bonnie 1925, by Highflyer 1006; Victor of Beetley 1587 by Reliance 667, grand dam by Congress 164; Reliance 667 by Confidence 158, dam by Rileman 670.

NOTE.—His complete pedigree covers many crosses of the thoroughbred and coach horse—but is too full to quote. Breeders are invited to call and see him and examine his pedigree at my stables. Respectfully, J. H. PIERATT.

GREENBACKS or Government Money.

At close of our Civil War in 1865, there appeared in the London Times the following:

"If that mischievous financial policy which had its origin in the North American Republic during the late Civil War in that country, should become indurated down to a fixture, then that government will furnish its money without cost. It will have all the money that is necessary to carry on its trade and commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized nations of the world. The brain and wealth of all countries will go to North America. THAT GOVERNMENT MUST BE DESTROYED OR IT WILL DESTROY EVERY MONARCHY ON THIS GLOBE."

The famous Hazzard circular, to capitalists in New York, and the Buell Bank circular to United States Bankers, both emanating from London, and the fabulous corruption fund raised in England and Germany, estimated at $1,500,000, were the agents that secured the closing of our mints against silver.

The "walk into my parlor" policy of England, during and since the Spanish War, is the latest evidence of English Diplomacy in shaping the destiny of the United States Government.

Notwithstanding the famine price of wheat, the Spanish War, and fabulous expenditures of money by our government during the past year, gold has increased in value eleven per cent, and all other values decreased in the same proportion.

For a thorough understanding of the money question, or silver issue, the Cincinnati Enquirer has uniformly given evidence of its ability to teach, explain and produce all facts and truth. It is a paper that ought and can be read by all classes with pleasure and profit.
